An Art Store.

Photography of to-day is not a TRADE but an ART.
Simply a photograph of yourself is not enough; it must show artistic skill in POSITION, LIGHTING and FINISH.
As a TRADE we never learned it.
As an ART we are making the most of what Nature has given us.

Chelsea Home News.

HALE K. DARLING, Local Editor.

We are requested to state that the new Vermont Statutes may be procured of the Tuttle Co., Rutland, for $3.00.

Treasurer W. P. Townsend states that the creamery is making 60 lbs. more butter per day than it did a year ago.

C. S. Emery, administrator of C. W. Clarke's estate, has sold 100 volumes of Mr. Clarke's law library to Judge Nichols.

Mrs. Mahala L. Hutchinson has sold her house to Mr. and Mrs. Carlos E. Bonhomme of Lowell, Mass., for $300. Mr. and Mrs. Bonhomme expect to move into it shortly.

Mrs. E. O. Tracy and Miss Lyle left Tuesday for the West. Mrs. Tracy goes to Aurora, Ill., to visit her brother, William Dickinson, and Lyle goes to the Osteopathic Infirmary at Kirksville, Mo.

The Chelsea Quilt club would like to take the conceit out of any other club in this county that thinks it knows how to play the game, and hereby challenges any such association for the championship of the county, with regulation 21-2 lb. quilts. Challenges addressed to Wm. F. Hood, secretary, will receive prompt attention.

At the call of the docket of the October term of supreme court at Montpelier, Tuesday morning, 58 cases were marked for hearing, the balance being entered continued, settled or with the court. All of the Orange county cases were set for hearing except A. S. Martyn vs. Francis Curtis, which was continued. Thirty-six cases were set for hearing before Orange county is reached.

Hon. Charles J. Prescott of Boston, who married a sister of the late Hon. Lyman G. Hinckley, died Oct. 23 at his home in Boston. Mr. Prescott was in the Massachusetts legislature for several terms and also served on the board of aldermen of Boston for several years. He was a Republican in politics and had been a member of the Republican city committee. An obituary notice in the Boston Journal sums up his character in the words of a friend who states that Mr. Prescott was “honest, square and able.” It was at Mr. Prescott's residence that Gov. Hinckley died in November, 1887.

A well attended meeting of those interested in the establishment of an agricultural society was held at the Orange County hotel Monday evening. A committee, consisting of W. H. Hill, E. D. Barnes and C. A. Densmore, was elected to examine grounds and obtain propositions from the owners and report to an adjourned meeting at the same place Thursday evening at 7:30. A general meeting will be held at the townhall on Saturday next at 2 p. m. and it is hoped that it will be well attended. With the interest now manifest and the assurance of support from adjoining towns it looks very much like the re-establishment in earnest of the old Orange county Agricultural society.

The way of the transgressor continues to be hard. Last Monday, Charles E. Frost of Washington called for a pint of alcohol at the town liquor agency, stating that he wanted it for his wife who was sick. It turned out that this was false and that Frost used the liquor for the purpose of getting himself intoxicated and that while in this condition he assaulted his wife's grandmother and turned the whole family out doors. Mr. Noyes, the agent, thought that this was imposing on him a little too much, and Frost was accordingly complained of by Grand Juror E. O. Tracy. On being arraigned before Justice Emery, Saturday, Frost pleaded guilty and was sentenced to pay a fine of $10 and costs, amounting in all to $18.08.

We had supposed that the three months ending Sept. 1st had been an unusually healthy period with the citizens of this county but an examination of the reports of the various liquor agents, as returned to the county commissioner, showing the amount of liquor sold for medicinal purposes, leads us to believe that there has been a great amount of disease, suffering, anguish and physical torture throughout the county during the period mentioned. Only five towns have thus far reported, viz.: Randolph, Newbury, Topsham, Vershire and West Fairlee. We presume that there has been so much sickness in the other towns and that the agents have been kept so busy in consequence that they cannot find time to make out their reports. From the reports of the five towns above named, we find that there was sold the following amount of liquors for life-saving purposes during the three months ending Sept. 1st: Alcohol, 232 gals.; new rum, 53 gals.; old rum, 34 gals.; cherry rum, 7 gals.; brandy, 11 gals.; Holland gin, 36 gals.; cider brandy, 4 gals.; Bourbon whiskey, 31 gals.; rye whiskey, 116 gals.; port wine, 4 gals.; porter, 140 bottles; ale, 88 bottles; sherry wine, 2 gals.; sealed goods, 163 bottles. Total, 678 gals. The amounts received from the invalids for the above named remedies was $2,416.02. It is only by contemplating such statistics as these that the value of good health can be fully appreciated.

Braintree.

Velvet remnants for sale at Mrs. J. A. French's; also a few feathers and ribbons for sale cheap.

CARD OF THANKS.—We desire to extend our sincere thanks to the many friends whose kindness and sympathy have helped us to bear more patiently the loss of our son. For the beautiful floral tributes also our thanks are due.

MR. AND MRS. ELEAZER BASS.

Mrs. H. M. Blanchard is still quite ill. J. E. Hutchinson and wife are visiting in Plainfield.

Edwin Smith is in quite poor health and is attended by Dr. Scott.

The W. C. T. U. will meet with Mrs. J. A. French Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 16. Almira Alexander from Montpelier visited relatives in Peth and vicinity last week.

Miss Lottie Manley of Randolph is spending some time with her aunt, Mrs. Nancy Treat.

Henry Ford from Dorchester, Mass., is the guest of Lyman Hutchinson and is calling on acquaintances in this vicinity.

Mrs. Azro Adams, sister of Mrs. C. B. Mann, died Friday and the funeral was held Sunday at her late home in Randolph.

W. E. Bass, an employee in a store in Boston, was in town last week to attend the funeral of his uncle. He is spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Bass.

Next Sunday morning, Oct. 13, Rev. Mr. Vater will preach a Harvest sermon, and Monday evening, Oct. 14, a Harvest festival in the church in Snowville, consisting of readings, recitations, singing, etc., after which will be a sociable. Cake and coffee will be served.

Herbert J. Bass, formerly of this town but of late an employee in a drug store in Boston, died in a hospital in that place last Tuesday. His remains were brought to Peth, where the funeral was held at his father's house, Rev. Mr. White officiating. The remains were taken to Randolph for interment.

Reunion of Co. G, 8th Vt. Vols.
Sixteen of the members of Co. G, 8th Vermont, met at Wagner's hotel, Braintree, on the 6th inst. The meeting was not thought of until the afternoon before, when it was noticed around that J. H. Bement of Flint, Mich., was in Braintree, and this meeting was gotten up to shake hands and talk over old times with “Hud.” All seemed to enjoy themselves and they had a right to do so. Mrs. Theodore Kendall took charge of the musical part of the entertainment, and Theodore, who was one of the original members of Co. G, of the social and speech-making part. The dinner was furnished by Mr. Wagner, whose part was done so well that every one was well satisfied.

The occasion was so much enjoyed that it was voted to hold a reunion at the same place on the 19th of October of each year. Comrade Bement enlisted from Braintree in 1861 when he was but 17 years of age and was discharged June 27, 1865. He was badly wounded at Cedar Creek, Va., Oct. 19th, 1864, at which battle he won a promotion for gallantry upon the field. Upon his discharge he resided in Vermont until 1870 when he went to Michigan where he has since resided and, reports says, done well. This is his first visit to Vermont since 1870. If the members of Co. G could have their way, he would be with them every 19th day of October—yes, all the time.

The Equitable Life paid policy holders in September, $19,153.86, through the general agency of W. H. S. Whitcomb of Burlington.

AT HOME.
We are pleased to announce that we have removed our Drug Store to more convenient and commodious quarters in N. M. Draper's Block, giving us a very central location. ## IVORY SOAP

99 1/100 PURE

High priced toilet soaps cost more than the Ivory, not because the soap itself is any better, but by reason of the expensive wrappings, boxes and perfume. Then the profit on toilet soaps is much greater.
